Lacy-Culpepper

Mr. Robert Culpepper, formerly of this city, but who for the past five years has been holding lucrative positions at Arkansas City, came to the city last Sunday afternoon accompanied with Miss Louise Lacy, daughter of Mr. George Lacy, of this city, one of the prettiest young ladies of Arkansas City. On their arrival the happy couple went to the home of C. E. Jordan, where, that afternoon about five o'clock, they were married by the Rev. J. R. Countiss.

After the wedding an elegant dinner was served to the happy couple and a few invited friends, by Mr. and Mrs. Jordan who, before their arrival, had been informed of the lover's intention.

We learn that there was no objection to the groom by the parents of the bride and that they would have consented to the marriage if they would have awaited the time, but, of course, such old fogysm they did not listen to and when father left the city for Little Rock that morning they pushed their little canoe from the banks into the Mississippi and on reaching this side walked several miles and rode the balance of the way to Lamont, where they caught the Valley train for this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Culpepper will remain here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan for several days before returning to their home.

The Times extends to the happy couple its best wishes for the same success in the future as they had in the consummating marriage ceremony of last Sunday afternoon.

Bitten by a Spider

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington, of Bosqueville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved me, and four boxes healed all the sores." Heals every sore, 25c at all druggists. Oct
